

Katherine's Reading List

A Little Girl's Dreams....

Katherine's greatest passion is reading. It started with her first book.

She loves this book and can tell the story by heart. She kept her original book as a life long treasure and would share it with her granddaughters. Sharon gave her a new “unworn” 60th Anniversary Edition on her 60th birthday. I think it was also the beginning of her small collection of dolls.

Her other favorite was: The Poky Little Puppy. Every Grandchild received a copy.

Katherine's main library and favorites were her Romance novels: She had an extensive collection and would read two or three books a month.

I gave her a Kindle for Christmas one year and her reading soared to almost 1-2 books a week.

Now we read together each evening as she introduces me to the world of romance.
