

To Have and To Hold

By
G. A. Blackburn

The best day of my life, was when I stood before the world and God Held your hands in mine and looked into your eyes,
I said "I do take you Katherine as my lawfully wedded wife"
"To have and to hold from this day forward" for the rest of my life.

Thank you for choosing me to be your one to share an eternity of love.

"To have" each other is our gift from God,
the greatest Blessing from above.

"To hold" you in my arms and Heart and soul, makes my life whole.

From that day forward our journey began and

We are now one for eternity on a path that never ends

Katherine I love you forever and gave you my heart and my soul

You are all the universe I will ever need, our bond will always be

"To Have and to hold" each other, our Destiny.
