

Whispers of Love

The first time we met I saw it in your eyes, the glow of our love and knew you were mine.

As I lingered in that beautiful place I felt in my soul something magical happen and heard for the first time in my life

The whisper of "I love You"! will you please be mine.

We began our journey and it was now a time of together and exploring

New ways of sharing and caring, a world of just two, you and me and the whispers of "I Love You"

By Gerald
Blackburn

For my
Katherine

As we stood side by side in front of our Lord, in the light all around us I heard the sound of a whisper from above, "I love you" and our hearts became one.

As our life unfolded and revealed such beautiful joy we were blessed with our children
A girl and two boys. Each time we welcomed new lives into ours,

I remember hearing that soft special sound like a breeze through the trees, that whisper of "I love you" so gentle and free.

Continue...

Dec 1994

Whispers of Love

By Gerald
Blackburn

Our Soul Garden grew and we did too. We would start and close each day with a whisper of "I Love You".

For my
Katherine

I never realized how these three little words could be so strong and mean so much
Until the day I lost you, and then you were gone...

As I watched and felt your soul depart, I knew you were gone when I heard in my heart
"goodbye my love, for just a while", and a Whisper in my mind, "I Love You dear".

It seems so long since you were here with me but I still hear each day
That quiet whisper *"I love you my dear"

Always remember you are not alone, I am right here!
*"I love you Katherine"

We are One.

