

A Soulmates Anniversary Lament

By

G. A. Blackburn

I do, I do – For better or for worse - In sickness and in health – for richer or poorer – For Eternity, Faith –Hope – Trust, this is our Trinity. Our Love is eternal as One, KathyJerry.

We met on a starry night in God's parking Lot
It was love at first sight, when she made my heart stop.
I knew it was love when she chose me as her ride
For a weekend in heaven and lifetime at my side.

It was a year of courting and sharing our dreams
We were so much in love and a heavenly team.
I could not imagine anyone else in my life
It was so very simple I would ask her to be my wife.

Our wedding was a most beautiful affair,
She was such a precious bride, our time together
Guided us into a life that is filled with pride

And love for each other, which is now our way,

I am so thankful God gifted her to me
And she chose to be my life partner you see
An eternity of Bliss, we share a special family
Of beautiful souls and loving memories.

For 58 years we have shared our lives
I miss her today here by my side.
I know she is still here in a new and different place
I will join you my dear when It is God's choice.

Let us together chose once again to stay joined forever as more than just friends.
As life partners and perfect Soulmates
We will transcend, this miracle of life
And not part after death.

We will be eternally Husband and Wife.
Happy Anniversary Katherine
You are my Heart and My soul
But more than that You are my Wife and my Life!

Kathy and Jerry say,
We are One and eternal,
We are here and now
That is our Legacy and Miracle.

I love You

Your

Jerry
